Clinton Township School District Board of Education

Strategic Planning Process

Approximately five years ago, members of the Clinton Township community, district parents, members of our administration, staff and our board of education worked with Gwen Thorton, New Jersey School Board's Field Representative to develop our district's five year strategic plan. The plan was developed over a series of meetings that took place during weekday evenings and one Saturday. This strategic plan has served as the foundation for how the district has delivered and improved the academic, social, emotional and behavioral well-being of all of our students for the last five years.

The current five year strategic plan will be completed during this school year, and therefore it is time for all stakeholders in our community to gather once again to provide input into the development of a new five year strategic plan. We have scheduled dates with Ms. Thorton, to develop and complete the new five year strategic plan during this winter. Below please find the schedule of dates that the five year strategic plan will be developed.

The Clinton Township Board of Education would like to invite members of our community and staff to participate in this process. More information will be provide in early January 2019.
