Mrs. Grant welcomed all to the meeting. She noted the end of summer was approaching and that the schools will soon be filled with students. Mrs. Grant spoke of a Bill put on the Governor's desk regarding moving school budget votes back to April. She then deferred to Mr. Gagliardi for a legal update. Mr. Gagliardi explained the bill regarding moving the vote from April to November. Once moved they were to stay there for a minimum of four years. The bill would create a minimum two year moratorium on any efforts to move the election from November to back April and to have a study commission look at how moving it would or would not be possible and the benefits of keeping it in November. The Governor signed it into law.
