She presented the enrollment report and suspension report and noted that there were 8 HIB first readings this evening. She also noted that January is NJ School Board Recognition Month. NJ School Boards oversees 581 school districts which operate 2,500 public schools and provides educational services to over 1.4 million students. They set policies for schools as well as make important decisions which affect curriculum, financing and staffing without any compensation. January 2017 is the 16th annual school board recognition month in New Jersey. Dr. Villani thanked each of the board members for their service to the district and noted that she will present a certificate of recognition to each member after the meeting.
Nominations for the fall NJ Educator of the Year were accepted through December 19th. Committees met in each school before the break to determine the winners and on Friday December 23, 2016, Dr. Villani and the building administrators presented the awards to the building recipients. There are two awards for the Governor’s Outstanding Educator process, one for Teacher of the Year and one for Educational Services Professional of the Year. The following staff members have been selected as Teacher of the year: SRS is Joanne Filus, PMG is Kristin McRae, RVS is Jennifer Pacione and CTMS is Sherry Ann Parsh. The Outstanding Educational Services Provider for SRS is Lisa Miller, PMG is Karen Sinagra, RVS is Ruth Stieh and CTMS is Dawn Hauck. She congratulated each of them and noted that they will be recognized at an upcoming Board meeting.

On January 10, 20017, 8th grade students visited the high school for an orientation which included a tour and discussion of course offerings. Last week, RVS students had their choral concert which was well-received. The students did a great job preparing for the event.

Dr. Villani then mentioned some upcoming dates to note. On January 26, 2017 the Preschool and Kindergarten Information Nights will take place at SRS. Relay for Life is scheduled for February 24, 2017 at CTMS.
